

Leonid Shakhmundes

Mr. Shakhmundes works as NPES market representative for Russia and Eurasia. In that capacity he has directed a successful orientation visit of a delegation 15 Eurasia dealers to PRINT 01, helped organize NPES trade missions to Uzbekistan and Ukraine, has managed NPES exhibits at the annual PoligraphInter exhibition in Moscow, prepared NPES quarterly market reports for Eurasia, and assisted NPES member companies find dealers in the Russian market.

Currently Mr. Shakhmundes is executive director of the new NPES Eurasia Sales and Service Training Center project in Moscow.

Before working for NPES, he worked as deputy director of the All Soviet Union Research and Develop Institute (Center) for Graphics Arts. (Moscow). The Institute was responsible for development of new technologies and quality Control; the testing and recommendation for purchase of all equipment and supplies coming in to the printing and converting industry in the Soviet Union.

A graduate of Moscow Printing University, Mr. Shakhmundes has a PhD in Quality Control Systems for Printing Technologies. He has 30 publications and 4 Russian patents to his name.

